

DEVELOPING 21ST CENTURY AND COLLEGE AND CAREER READINESS SKILLS THROUGH THE VISUAL ARTS

Explore the newly reinstated permanent collection and the following special exhibitions during fall 2016:

- The Meadow (weather permitting)
- Cairns on the Beach: An Installation by Stan Herd
- Civil War Era Drawings from the Becker Collection
- John Steuart Curry: Interpretations of the Civil War
- Elizabeth “Grandma” Layton: You Gotta Have Art
- John Steuart Curry’s Map of Europe, 1928

Gallery activities and art projects are designed to explore visual thinking, and practice the cross-disciplinary skill of observation, develop expressive language, complement the Common Core/College and Career Readiness, and develop the four “super skills” identified by the Partnership for 21st Century Skills – creativity, communication, collaboration, and critical thinking. Includes a scientific drawing project.

Tours are free, available Tuesday-Friday, last 1½ hours, and can be tailored to all grade levels. Bus funds are available, provided by donations to the museum.
